Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to inform you about some important changes in Dolphin's class. I would like to thank you for your patience during this time of change, please be reassured every careful decision we have made has always been in the best interest of the children.

It is with regret I am informing you that Miss Dixon has resigned from her position as class teacher, finishing with us at Easter. I know this will cause some unrest, but some things are out of our control. We wish Miss Dixon all the very best for the future and thank her for her time at Warboys Primary Academy.

With this in mind, we are unable to continue the model of Mrs Myles-Gardiner and Mrs Hamman job sharing in EYFS, due to SEND demands across the school. This will enable Mrs Myles-Gardiner to continue her work as SEN Coordinator. We have therefore taken the careful decision to introduce and warmly welcome Mrs Ivanka to Dolphin's class. Mrs Ivanka comes with extensive experience in the EYFS setting and sound knowledge working with pupils with additional needs. This week she has been supporting, shadowing, and getting to know the class and staff in readiness to start as from next week.

For continuity Mrs Myles-Gardiner and Mrs Hamman will continue to meet with Dolphin's parents, for the up-and-coming parents evening on the 12th and 13th March. Mrs Ivanka will also be available to meet with you as your child's new class teacher.

Please rest assured that our primary focus has always remained on providing the best quality teaching and learning experience for all our pupils. We are committed to ensuring that the provision is also well equipped in supporting your child's educational journey. We have recently taken delivery of new furniture and play equipment, with thanks to the Trust for financing the project and Mrs Wales (EYFS lead across the Trust) for coordinating and sourcing the right equipment to enhance the provision.

We understand that changes in staffing can be concerning, but please be assured that we are dedicated to maintaining the high standards of teaching and learning that our school is known for.

Thank you for your continued support.

Kind regards

Mr Stuart Mallott
